

Provincial Shield Selection

The Provincial Shield selection has been finalized with the view of successfully bringing the Trophy back to Geelong. Unlike other years those selected for this event are not guaranteed selection to go further. The West Coast challenge, which may or may not include others, will form part of the selection criteria for the Regional Team.

The Provincial Shield will be held at the Sebastopol Bowling Club on Sunday November 19. The Wimmera Region will not be participating this year with the fixture will being altered so that there are no byes throughout the day.

Format

- * Men's sides to consist of 6 rinks of 4 players
- * Teams are to be numbered from 1 to 6 and those numbers are retained for each game.
- * The winning region will be decided on games won: 2 points for a win; 1 point for a tie.
- * In the event of points being equal, the winner will be decided by total shots up.
- * All games to be played over 12 completed ends with a time limit of 2 hours
- * A random draw for the day will be completed by the Ballarat Highlands Bowls Region and will be posted on Bowlslink prior to the event
